Art Show and Auction Rules:

- If Artists do not check in by 12:00pm on Friday, it will be assumed that they are not in attendance and they risk the loss of their space to a walk-in Artist. If you are going to be late in arriving to the convention, e-mail artshow@all-con.net or make a note on your registration form on submission.
- All art displayed must be your own original work, and must be matted and prepared for hanging, Art is hung using binder clips and hooks on peg board panels. Take this into consideration when selecting pieces for display. We are not responsible for damage due to improper presentation and hanging by the Artist or Agent.
- Panel locations will be determined by the Art Show staff and are available on a first come first serve basis.
- Space placement is also FINAL. Certain requests will be accommodated as space, occupancy and time allows.
- The room will be secured overnight for loss prevention; however the Convention assumes no liability for any losses incurred. Please insure your work against theft, damage, shipping issues, acts of higher power, etc.
- Artists are responsible for all sales taxes.
- Silent bids on pieces will begin on Friday and continue until the close of bidding on Saturday evening. The Art Show Director will determine if three or four bids send pieces to the live auction. The art show staff may also select pieces to auction at their discretion.
- Cancellation and Refund Policy: Art Show space is held to the exclusion of others. Due to the difficulty in reselling space at the last minute, no refunds will be made after January 20, 2010.
- Explicit nudity may be censored or segregated from the General Exhibit at the discretion of the Art Show Director.
- The Convention reserves the right to refuse the exhibition of any work for any reason.
